

Office Fax TF4025

Thermal transfer fax & copier with telephone

Small, multifunctional and reliable

The all-in-one thermal transfer fax machine convinces through its matchless versatility. Due to its small size it can be easily put anywhere in your home or your small office.

Solid communication functions

- Each fax transfer finishes with a sending report with reduced first page
- Predefined fax forms and the timer function ease the workflow
- Send a fax to multiple receivers via the group-broadcasting feature.
- Store up to 50 name dial entries and dedicate distinctive ring tones to special callers
- The automatic document feeder has a capacity of up to 10 pages for larger documents

Convenience and safety

- More security with the 15 page memory and an outgoing call log
- The space saving design makes it easy to find room for the device
- On hook dialling lets you dial a number without lifting the handset
- 10 short dial keys, which can be set up for your most frequent fax receivers, help you save time
- The timer function allows you to postpone the dispatch of your faxes up to 24 hours
